Prominent Eastern Civic Authorities Guests of City

INTRODUCTION TO

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP
Speakers Mayor Short and Frank Oliver With Story of What Edmonton Has Done

The eastern municipalists, who are visiting Edmonton today, after attending the Canadian union of municipalities convention at Saskatoon, were entertained at lunch in the King Edward hotel this afternoon by Mayor Shor and a number of prominent citizens.

dealt briefly with the phenomenal development which had taken place in Edmonton, and the steps which were being taken by the municipality to keep pace with the rapid growth.

According to eastern standards, said the mayor, Edmonton might not be considered a very large city, but its growth was phenomenally rapid, and it served a much larger territory than did any eastern city.

Mayor Short added that Edmonton has thus become a municipally owned town, through force of circumstances.

Mayor Short stated that he would not deal with the earlier history of the city, for the reason that there was a

The Hon. Mr. Oliver prefaced his address by stating that, to an old-timer, it was very noticeable that conditions were changing rapidly in the west.

One of the most striking proofs of the new order of things, said Mr. Oliver, lay in the fact that it was now possible to bring together municipal representatives of the greater and lesser cities of the east in this metropolis of the northwest.

Referring to municipal ownership in Edmonton, Mr. Oliver said he might mention that Mayor Short had himself been one of the most compelling circumstances which had caused the city to own its public utilities. If municipal ownership was not yet perfect, the citizens believed that the time would come when it would reach almost to perfection. Mr. Oliver contended that municipal ownership maintained an interest in municipal affairs among the people of Edmonton which Mayor Bligh of Halifax stated that he had not been surprised by anything he had seen in the west, for such wonderful stories were told of Edmonton's prosperity in the east that he was prepared for all he saw. Mayor Bligh added, however, that he would tell the people of Halifax, when he returned home, that all the wonderful stories which they had heard were only the bare truth.

George Swaisland, of the Molson's bank, referring to the criticisms that the west was spending too much money, made by English financial kings, expressed the wish that more English financial magnates would visit the west. If they did so, said Mr.

The visiting municipalists arrived in the city by the 7.45 C.P.R. train from

MILITANCY HAS BROKEN OUT IN UNITED STATES

Twenty Women in Portland, Oregon, Defy Mayor's Order and Arrests Follow.

TWO POLICEMEN USED TO IMPRISON LEADER She and Nine of Her Supporters are Removed to Jail, and Several Patrol Loads of Men Also Taken.

Portland, Ore., July 18.—Many arrests of industrial workers of the "World" were made last night, when a crowd of 20 women, led by Mrs. Marie Rini, defied the mayor's order by holding a street meeting. Dr. Egan and nine of her followers were taken to jail. Several patrol loads of men also were taken in. Some of the men resisted and were roughly handled. Dr. Egan, a practicing physician and suffrage leader, who recently espoused the Industrial Workers' cause, had announced publicly that she would defy the police by speaking on the street last night, declaring she would arrest with a poisoned pin any policeman who molested her. She resisted arrest, and two policemen were required to overpower her.

NO INQUEST NECESSARY. Winnipeg, July 18.—Coroner Dubin, of St. Boniface, decided yesterday afternoon that an inquest into the death of Harry Pepprell, who was found dead in a bath-room at his boarding house, was unnecessary, as he died of heart failure.

FIRE CHIEF ASKS LEAVE TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Chief Lander, of the fire department, has asked leave to attend the international convention of fire chiefs in New York city in September. Members of the fire department will attend and there will be the latest collection of fire fighting apparatus ever gathered together in one place. He will be gone for about a month, leaving the city August 18 and returning September 15.

TRAINMEN WILL NOT ACCEPT THE ROADS' DEMAND

They Are Almost Certain to Strike If Their Claims Are Not Considered Alone

CHAMBERS SELECTED AS MEDIATION CHAIRMAN He Has Been a Member of the Spanish Treaty Claims Commission; Martin Knapp and Louis F. Post to Aid.

New York, July 18.—The 80,000 trainmen and conductors who threaten a strike against eastern railroads will not agree under any circumstances to have the roads' grievances arbitrated at the same time as the men's demand for better wages under the New Lands amendment to the Eriean Act, according to a statement issued last night by C. C. Lee, and A. E. Garrelson, presidents respectively of the trainmen's and conductors' brotherhoods.

Mr. Lee, in a verbal statement supplementing the one issued last night, declared that if the railroads persist in their present stand to have their own grievances arbitrated, he will definitely certain that a strike will follow.

Wilson Names Chambers. Washington, July 18.—President Wilson late yesterday selected William L. Chambers of the district of Columbia to be commissioner of mediation and conciliation under the New Lands Act, and G. W. W. Hanger as his assistant. Their names will be sent to the senate today. The other two members of the new board will be Martin Knapp, of the United States Commerce court, and Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of labor.

Immediate confirmation of the president's nominations is expected. Democrats and Republicans in both houses of congress joined hands Tuesday to put through promptly the New Lands bill with a hope of averting the threatened strike of 80,000 conductors and trainmen on eastern railroads.

The commissioner and his assistant will devote all their time to their new duties, but the other two members of the board will retain their present federal positions and will act as mediators only when called upon.

Judge Chambers, chosen to head the board, was at one time chief justice of the international court at The Hague, and since 1901 has been a member of the Spanish treaty claims commission.

He has had considerable experience, however, in arbitrating labor disputes. As a mediator, he has been successful in many cases.

In 1910 he was selected as a third arbitrator in the annulment of the 10 railroads operating in the territory west of Chicago and the brotherhood of locomotive firemen and engineers.

NORTHERN CHINA TROOPS VICTORS

Southern Rebel Forces are Defeated and Are Fleeing to Ku Liang

Ku Liang, China, July 18.—The northern troops have taken possession of Ku Liang and the forts. The southern rebel forces have been defeated and are fleeing to Ku Liang, about 15 miles to the south. Heavy fighting has been in progress for several days, all around Ku Liang, as the rebels are trying to break through the northern troops to drive out the Ku Liang troops, numbering 5,000. Reinforcements are now on the way to aid in putting down the revolt which has spread all along the Yangtze River.

LETTER TELLS OF SUICIDE PURPOSE

Rupert Earl Wilson Writes that He Is Going to End His Existence.

Regina, July 18.—"Unless the impulse of me will have killed myself by the time this letter reaches you," are the words said to have been penned by Rupert Earl Wilson, president of the Wilson Land company, Regina, to a friend in the city.

The letter was written from Winnipeg on Tuesday morning probably a few hours after his arrival in that city. Wilson left Regina for Winnipeg on Monday evening on business in connection with one of the many deals with which he has been identified during the past few months.

The letter, while not explicitly dealing with financial conditions generally, maintained that the writer's affairs were in a bad shape.

NO RAIN INDICATIONS.

Kansas City, July 18.—Slightly lower temperatures for northern Kansas with the heat in central and western Kansas and in western Missouri about the same as yesterday were indicated by the weather reports yesterday. There was no rain in any part of the south-west. The heat trend yesterday was Hutchinson, Kansas, where a temperature of 111 degrees was recorded. At Marysville, Kansas, the government thermometer registered 110 degrees.

Mr. Post was assistant secretary of labor, and as an editor and writer, has long been an advocate of the single tax and labor reforms. He has been a candidate for office several times on labor tickets.

The circus is here. Those four words carry a lot of information. The Sells-Floto shows are in the city, bigger and larger than last year, when the circus broke all records for attendance right here in Edmonton. Long before the arrival of the two sections of the circus train there was a bunch of kiddies (some older ones too) at the yards of the C.P.R. anxiously awaiting the arrival.

When the yellow cars disgorged their wondrous collection of right milder elephants, including a baby, a hippopotamus, herd of camels, water buffaloes, sacred cattle and other animals of what the circus people term "day rangers" as well as many cases of wild and ferocious animals, breakfast was quickly had, and the circus grounds started. At the circus grounds on First street, market square, all was quickly had, and the circus grounds started. Chicken and Watermelon End This Negro's Hunger Strike

Steaming Plate of Fried Fowl and a Juicy Slice of the Other Brings New Jersey Prisoner's Determination to an Abrupt Finish.

Elizabeth, N.J., July 18.—The man in which Warden Dodd, of the county jail, broke up a hunger strike yesterday, may set a new example, he thinks, to the thousands of English prisoners who become victims of suffragettes who seek to gain their liberty by refusing to eat. William Turner, a negro prisoner, incarcerated in the county jail, was taken to the kitchen in a similar manner. Yesterday morning the negro had 18 hours without food, when Warden Dodd, of the door of his cell with a steaming plate of fried chicken and a large slice of juicy watermelon. Turner sniffed and his hunger strike came to an abrupt end.

AGRICULTURE. Missouri is the first state in the production of pig tobacco. But then, in a similar manner. Yesterday morning the negro had 18 hours without food, when Warden Dodd, of the door of his cell with a steaming plate of fried chicken and a large slice of juicy watermelon. Turner sniffed and his hunger strike came to an abrupt end.

More Light ON THE SAVINGS BANK QUESTION

Following our TALK TO THE SAVINGS BANK INVESTOR and getting down to Brass Tacks we wish to point out that we are not trying to sell you any Real Estate, so don't get scared.

We have a straight-forward proposition to put before you where we can show you a profit of two, three or four times the money you put into the deal about Christmas time and in return we ask you to write us and we will place our proposals before you.

Those who have written us already in connection with our previous advertisement are today well pleased with our system as outlined to them and have supplied us, and we ask you to do the same.

You can readily understand that we cannot do any more than suggest what our system is in the scope of a mere newspaper advertisement, so you have got to get busy and write us.

We can promise you that you will be more than pleased with our plans, and whether you do business with us or not, you will acknowledge our system to be a sure business investment.

You may have a few dollars lying idle in the Bank at small interest, if we can show you that, without in any way risking the loss of this money you stand to make a profit of from 200 to 150 per cent in a few months' time, don't you think it very foolish to neglect the chance of even inquiring about it and getting to know the facts for yourself?

We are as pleased to talk business with the man or woman with the $10 as the man with the $1000, so don't imagine because you have only a few dollars that we are not talking to you. We really are, so write today, and tomorrow you will be congratulating yourself on being let in on a proposition on the ground floor. These kind of propositions are being passed by the lucky few with the substantial Bank Accounts who are today passing by in the street in their $3000 automobiles, and perhaps you may have been asking yourself how they manage it. Well, we can show you how they manage it and we can also show you how in your smaller way you can do the same.

One of our clients has been working hard for the last eleven years as a lumber-jack and saved up $2000. By Christmas time he will be worth over $10,000 by following our guidance and coming in on this same proposition which we are offering you today.

This proposition has nothing to do with Real Estate in the every day sense of the word, nor does it call for you buying lots and having payments to meet with all the attending worries and troubles. It's a straight deal and a sure one, and your liability is limited to the amount of money paid in.

Write today and have no regrets tomorrow. BOX NO. 33.

COUNCIL TO BE PETITIONED FOR PARK ON CARBARN SITE

If the Aldermen Do Not Comply With the Request of the Residents of the Neighborhood, They Will Take the Matter to Court for Injunction.

Requesting that the city council rescind its action of three weeks ago when it was decided to lease the old car barns to the school board for a period of one year, a petition bearing nearly 300 names will be presented to the city fathers at their next regular meeting.

The petition cites among other arguments that the property in question was donated to the city for park purposes and that upon the strength of this readiness totalling in value nearly a quarter of a million dollars have been erected in this particular district.

It is further pointed out that when the car barns were first located upon this site a petition objecting to the same was filed with Mayor McLaughlin and it was upon his promise that the buildings were to be located there only temporarily, or until a permanent site could be selected, that no further action was taken at that time.

The petitioners contend that as the city solicitor has advised the council that the property must be used for park purposes the mayor and council are not only going beyond their authority but are imposing a hardship upon the citizens of the district by leasing the old barns to the school board.

In conclusion the petitioners ask that the previous action of the council be rescinded and the property be turned over to the parks department for the necessary improvements. Failure in this the petitioners anticipate that they will resort to the courts and will apply for an injunction to restrain the school board from entering upon and taking charge of the site in question.

The petitioners also contend that they consider they have an action for damages against the city in that their property will depreciate in value through the property not being used for a park.

FRESNO REPRESENTATIVE SPYING OUT THE LAND

Save Several Families From the Rain Belt Are Coming to Alberta Soon—Looking to Peace River.

Representing a score or more of well-to-do farmers near Fresno, California, Robert H. Armstrong of that city is in Edmonton today on what he terms a "tour of investigation." Mr. Armstrong arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and will look over the district immediately contiguous to the Alberta city after which he proposes to find the Peace River country. Speaking to a capital reporter at the Alberta hotel today Mr. Armstrong stated that there were a large number of families in Fresno county who will come to Canada early next spring, while the thirty which he represents will migrate to all available land in the west.

DEATH MAY BE RESULT.

ORDERED WATER PIPE; FORGOT THE SPECIALS

New Water Main Construction Cannot Be Completed This Year and Householders Must Wait

A certain amount of water main construction, which was to have been completed this year, will in all probability be laid over until next spring because certain materials were not ordered by the departments doing the work. It appeared that the order for steel pipe were placed but that certain specials for connection purposes were not ordered with the pipe and as a result the work now in hand cannot be completed. Some of these specials were ordered later and have arrived, but the bulk of them have not yet reached the city, and it is very probable that the work cannot be completed before the freeze-up this fall.

OPPOSED TO INTERLOCKING.

Washington, July 18.—An amendment to the Glass-Steagall currency bill to prohibit interlocking directorates in banking institutions was proposed at the conference of democrats of the house committee yesterday. The plan, offered by Representative Wingo of Arkansas, went over to the next meeting after brief discussion and without a test of strength in the committee. The conference extended the meeting period of paper re-discounts under the law from 15 to 60 days.

PRISONER DECLARED INSANE.

Edmonton, July 18.—William Henry Lakaki, charged at the recent assizes with attempted murder, was yesterday declared to be insane, and was committed to an asylum.

QUITS ARGENTINE TO COME HERE

Visitor Who Made Fortune in South America to Locate in Canada Now.

James T. Markham, who owns 1,000 acres of land near Buenos Ayres, is in the city today looking over conditions with a view to closing out all his holdings in Argentine and investing his money in western Canada. Mr. Markham located in Argentina 10 years ago, and during that time, through the increased value of his land holdings and the profits from vast herds of cattle and flocks of sheep, has succeeded in making a considerable sum of money. Conditions have changed, however, in the south, and he now proposes to migrate to a new country, where he will have a better opportunity of investing his money.

Speaking to a capital representative at the King Edward this morning, Mr. Markham stated that there was but little industrial activity in Argentina these days, due to the weakness of the money market. As a matter of fact the stringency is felt there even more than it was in 1905, when it was practically impossible to secure a single dollar in any way.

Throughout South America the crisis is very promising, especially in the Argentine, but the lack of railway facilities for transporting the crops once they are brought to maturity has tended to lessen the interest of the resident in his citizens and in any way.

time has stopped at several of the larger towns between here and the border. He expresses himself as well pleased with conditions as he found them, and proposes to pay a visit to the Peace River country before deciding where he will locate. He left for Athabasca this morning and from there will go to Ground and Dunvegan.

COUNTY COURT JUDGES TO GET MORE SALARY

They Have Not Received Any Increase in Many Years—Minister of Justice Considering Plan.

Ottawa, July 18.—Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice, has under consideration a general readjustment and increase for the salaries of Canadian county court judges. It is pointed out that the salaries of $2,500 to $3,500 a year are insufficient to meet the increasing cost of living, no increases having been made in the salaries for many years.

New Westminster, B.C., July 18.—Bob Burman, the speed king of the auto world, yesterday broke into the limelight in the McNamara trial. He was the first witness to be called by the prosecution. He testified that he had seen a man who resembled the photograph of Bob Burman, the speed king of the auto world, yesterday broke into the limelight in the McNamara trial.

George Greenwood, of Central Park, was questioned and told of seeing McNamara driving a wheezy old automobile from Westminster towards Vancouver on the morning following the bank robbery. In the car were four other men, two of whom were later arrested in Detroit, and Charles Dean, now here awaiting trial. This car is also alleged to have contained the loot which was later recovered.

In explanation, Sir Charles handed the witness a photograph and asked him to identify it.

"That's Martin Powell," declared Greenwood, promptly and decisively. He stuck to the identification.

Sir Charles turned to the jury and gleefully explained that the picture was a portrait of Bob Burman that he had clipped out of a paper.

The court room was convulsed with laughter.

Fifteen Months a Fugitive.
New York, July 18.—They've got "Australian Mac" at last. But it was some job, though. It cost $25,000 on both sides of a fight that involved the implacable British government, and his John McNamara, the right name of a criminal who is called the most extraordinary safe blower and bank robber in crime annals.

accomplished on this continent. Only the famous Manhattan Bank and Ocean Bank footings in New York long ago compare with it.

McNamara has been identified here as a stranger who opened a real estate office in New Westminster and appeared to be public, prosperous, progressive and an acquisition to the community. Like "Get-Rich-Quick" Wainwright, he began negotiations to buy various buildings, talked largely about constructive plans that he had in mind, and was welcomed with open arms. It wasn't long before he became acquainted with the officers and clerks of the branch of the Bank of Montreal in New Westminster and studied their ways.

Robbery of Bank.
A certain clerk always slept in the bank, which was also guarded by a Chinese night watchman. On the night of September 14, 1911, that clerk slept elsewhere and a band of expert safe blowers entered the bank by the means of a false key, overpowered and bound the sole guardian, and with the aid of the Chinese watchman made their way through the brick lining surrounding the money vault. Then they penetrated another lining of steel that formed the inner protecting jacket of the great safe. After deftly the safe and filling the vault with nitro-glycerine they exploded "soup" by charging the metal of the safe with electricity from one of the lighting wires in the room. So securely they wrapped the vault with rugs that a policeman sleeping in the next door house was not aroused.

The loot was packed in bags and off went the robbers in a stolen motor car. Their booty was mostly in five dollar and ten dollar notes. Some twenty-five dollar, fifty dollar and hundred dollar notes were also garnered and a large quantity of gold. Off they sped for the Fraser River, and on the way the automobile broke down.

Durdened by sue ha huge sum, they cached $11,000 under a wooden saddle where it was accidentally found after a year. Then a roaming small boy found $35,000, one-third in gold, hidden under bridge spanning the Fraser River. Still another $5,000 in gold was recovered from a tramp who found it lying in the street in New Westminster and started on a glorious spree.

George Hendricks, a Buffalo gambling house keeper, was amazed when he found that he had accepted $1,000 in bills which the police showed him were part of the loot and which he had deposited in the bank.

In rounding up the robbers the fire police were already in jail Charles Dean, alias Hoffman, arrested in Los Angeles; Charles Butler, alias "Long" and treated in Detroit; and "Dayton Red" Foley, caught in Toronto. They have never let up in the hunt for the two more yet to be caught.

"Australian Mac" does not lack old friends and companions in jail.

He is accused of conducting his strategic campaigns from a fine home at Fort Lee, N. J., just across the river from this city, where he had lived for years and where he was looked upon as a respectable citizen. But during the free-and-easy days of the bluff and Major Eugene Schmitz in San Francisco Mac was notorious places called The Tug and the Cabin. He was "in right" in those times. For his money obtained from his protection—protection with a double-knotted belt and a long knife.

The New York police list McNamara as a bank sneak and professional burglar. He was a well-known mugger and a numbers and measured. They know the length of his ear, the size of his collar, how many fingers he bears and where they are. He is card-indexed and cross-indexed, photographed head-on and side-on, and the whole of him is nerve and indifference. It would bore him to be shocked; it would grieve him to be surprised; and he is admitted to be a seventh wonder to the men who throw a drag net around the criminal world and sort out the many queer fishes that get meshes.

But it's hard to get the goods on "Australian Mac."

It is a frequently used utterance on some big burglary. That looks like "Australian Mac's" work.

Once in a while, after some job, McNamara mysteriously disappears, apparently waiting for the detectives' arrival with the old show of calm, the same "Australian Mac" inquiry, and with a pleasant and cultivated tongue that volunteers little worth while information yet makes itself thoroughly entertaining.

Many times they've tried to lynch him, but McNamara has always been covering his tracks in the case of the New Westminster robbery, which was one of the biggest ever accomplished on this continent.

CO-OPERATION OF OBTAIN SETTLERS

Australian States Will Unite Their Forces With London Headquarters.

London, July 18.—The King will lay the foundation stone of the new Australian Commonwealth buildings, which are being erected in the Strand at Aldwych next Thursday. When the premises will form the headquarters of the immigration scheme in which Victoria and New Zealand have just announced their intention to participate.

It is possible, said Mr. Hunter, that Queensland may not come into the arrangements for the proposed combined migration scheme, as the conditions in that state are somewhat different to those in others.

"It has been found that immigration can be dealt with more effectively by abolishing rivalry and the cost of recruiting and transfer will be reduced considerably. At the present moment I am getting a calculation made as to the cost of each immigrant to Australia."

At the moment the Victoria government is anxious to populate the state, and with the co-operation of the other states there is every prospect that the migration figures during this next decade will put an entirely different complexion on the future.

Last year, which was a record for Australia, Victoria took 15,000 immigrants and New South Wales took 14,000.

The question of a combined scheme of immigration for all Australia is to be discussed shortly by the various governments in Australia.

NO BOTHERSOME PLOT CONCEALED IN HANKY PANKY

Glorified Vaudeville With Festoons of Pretty Little "Ponies."

STATELY SHOW GIRLS AND SONGS TO WHISTLE

Four Comedians and Flora Moore Furnish All laughs One Wants to Endure This Hot Weather.

You couldn't find a trace of a plot in Hanky Panky with a microscope, and that is where the man or the man who wrote it showed their excellent sense. It's this trying to put a spin into what was originally intended to be a jolly show that makes the average comic opera so tiresome. Hanky Panky is a glorified vaudeville show with heaps of pretty little "ponies," and stately show girls, songs that make you want to whistle them, even when you know that whistling is not one of your accomplishments, stage settings with lots of color in them, and

I CAN BUILD AN AIRSHIP THAT WILL CARRY 200 PERSONS ACROSS THE ATLANTIC IN 50 HOURS!

By William G. Shepherd

Paris, July 18.—Louis Bleriot, the first man ever to fly across the English channel, has just told me some astonishing things about the possibility of trans-Atlantic flight.

One of the most astonishing is that he thinks it impractical. Bleriot is a great expert in the mathematics of aviation as he is in the art of actually handling a machine. He is a scientist who has not flown for two years, but he spends all his time operating his factory and experimenting.

"Do you think it is possible to fly across the Atlantic?" I asked him. "Perhaps, but I would not wish to try it with the aeroplanes we have today. Only the very best of luck—miraculous luck—could get a flyer across. An attempt would be full of danger, with many odds in favor of failure and death."

"Why would it be dangerous?"

"Because, on the waters of the Atlantic, the flyer would have to alight beside ships several times to secure fuel, and how could he be sure that he would find the ships. Even if there were a string of ships 500 miles apart, and that is not a long distance for a non-stop flight in these days—how could he find his way from one ship to the next? There is no known way by which an aviator can follow a trail across the Atlantic; his compass might show that his machine headed for America and the west, but, in reality, the flyer would be carrying his way southward, without his knowledge away from the next ship that he is sure to find. It would be much the same as being lost in a desert."

"But would it be possible to build an aeroplane that could carry enough fuel for a non-stop flight across the Atlantic?"

"If I had the money and there was a commercial demand for it I could build an aeroplane within two years that would cross the Atlantic ocean in 50 hours! I have figured it all out and made all my calculations."

"How many persons would such an aeroplane carry?"

"It would easily carry two hundred persons, in addition to the fuel!"

The great aviator drew a pencil from his pocket and made some hurried calculations.

"My plan would be," he said, "to have an aeroplane of 10,000 horsepower. You see," he explained, "two figures that every heavier carrier aeroplane might weigh 250,000 pounds or 110 tons. The engine and the fuel together with the necessary lubricating oil, would weigh about 25 tons. I could build a very safe aeroplane that would weigh 40 tons, aside from the engine, and this would leave us 40 tons for the passengers. This would mean about 200 passengers, unless it was desired to use some of this passenger-loadings for the passengers."

"How soon, do you suppose, will such aeroplanes carry passengers across the Atlantic?"

Just as soon as there is a demand for such transportation. It is a problem of commercial demand; not of aeroplane building. But I do not think that aeroplanes will ever take the place of ships, for I doubt their commercial usefulness in crossing oceans. Airships will always be dependent on the weather.

"It's a simple problem in mathematics. Suppose an aeroplane, no matter how gigantic it is, has a speed of 100 miles an hour and suppose it circumscribes a wind of 120 miles an hour. The result would be that the airship would travel backward 20 miles an hour. You see the difference between a water ship and an airship is that the ocean in which the water ship sails always remains stationary."

"Within a very few years," he concluded, "a trans-Atlantic aeroplane that is safe in ordinary weather may be built, but the man who crosses the Atlantic in the ordinary aeroplane of to-day must be an exceptionally brave and a miraculously lucky flyer—too much so, I fear, to be true!"

In all the comedians on the stage to-day—such is just as screamingly funny as Marie Dressler, just as slyly humorous as Marie Cahill—and in addition she is a wonderful comedienne and a way of making fun that is all Florence Moore and nobody else. More remarkable still, Miss Moore is a perfectly good looking girl, a wholesome, bright appeal of face that is a million times more powerful than mere doll prettiness. She can sing too, in a high clear soprano voice that is a delight, and her first name is Hippolyte.

In net one she is a typewriter with horsepower and the ambition to write "ponies." Some of these she inherited from Solomon Bumpski (Harry Cooper). The early scenes between the two are irresistibly funny, and the funniest things they say and do are the things they think of on the spur of the moment. Hermann Wertheimer (Mr. Hugh Cameron) and Wilhelm Rausnitz (Max Rogers), the other two in the quartet, present the very best type of broad humor with exquisite little touches here and there that make their presence on the stage a real joy.

Clay Smith, as Sir J. Rufus Walbridge, is not the least little bit like an English peer, but then "he should worry" with a voice like his, and his ability to dance and the way he has of setting over the footlights and into the favor of the audience.

Hiney Rausnitz (William Montgomery) is an admirable foil to Miss Moore in the second act, where he shines with no unsoldy light. The two Weirigle sisters, Myrtle Gilbert and Flo May, are dainty young ladies who dance with grace and ease, and sing with pretty little voices that are quite as effective as if they had twice the volume.

Christine Nelson, the Cleopatra of the production, has three songs, "The Dawn of Love," "Rags of Pyramia Land," and "Dixie Love," which she sings admirably. Miss Nelson's voice has a full and a freshness of tone that makes up for the apparent lightness of it. What is more, Miss Nelson sings without any apparent effort. The majority of comic opera prima donnas make themselves to look like Ethel Barrymore throwing an emotional fit every time the spot light is turned their way, and that is why Christine Nelson's delicate method of taking a solo is such a pleasure.

In conclusion, there is not a single moment from the time the curtain goes up until the God Save the King is sung by the entire company, a nice bit of courtesy from a company that is mostly American.

TELEPHONE COMPANY CANNOT INCREASE PAY

Montreal, July 18.—The Bell Telephone company has announced to its employees that the scheduled salary increases cannot take place owing to the stringency of the money market. MANY MONARCHS ARE POSSESSORS OF BIG INCOMES

That of King George and Queen Mary is figured to be About $2,350,000

CZAR OF RUSSIA GETS CASH FROM GREAT AREA

He Receives Money from Estates of More than a Million Square Miles and from Gold and Other Mines.

The annual income of King George and Queen Mary is said to be $2,350,000, and in addition to this provision is made for the various members of the royal family, so that the total amounts to, somewhat approximately, $3,000,000. The King also receives the revenues of the Duchy of Lancaster, which amounts to $1,000,000 more annually, and the Prince of Wales receives the revenues of the Duchy of Cornwall, amounting to more than $24,000 annually. In spite of this liberal provision, it is not necessary for the King to pay life insurance with a view to providing for the future maintenance of the Queen should he be the first to die. The Parliament provides for that by a special grant to fall due in the event of the Queen's survival. It is also customary on the marriage of royal children for the British people to provide a dowry by Parliamentary grant. When King George came to the throne certain malcontents in the House of Commons suggested that the Parliamentary grants to the King and Queen should be cut down to about one-eighth of what had been customary, but when explained that it would be impossible to keep up the state to which the British rulers have accustomed on a lesser sum, the people loyally adhered to the financial support of the King.

Not Dependent on Subjects.

Times have been a little hard with the King of Russia, recently, and disturbances within the Empire have decreased the royal revenues, from $2,500,000 a year to about $1,600,000, and this at the very time when provisions have taken a startling leap upwards in all quarters of the world. The King doesn't need to depend on the whims of his subjects, however, for Russia is the land of Russia. He draws the income from estates of more than a million square miles in cultivated lands and forests, and in gold and other mines in Siberia.

The Emperor of Austria-Hungary is in receipt of an annual income of $2,600,000, and William II, of Germany, manages to get along on $2,000,000. In addition to this, the German Kaiser has a vast amount of private property, from the revenues of which the court expenditures and family pensions are paid. The King of Italy receives $2,000,000 a year, from which $72,000 is paid to the family, and the little Queen of Holland has $500,000 annually from the country and large revenues from her private domains. Fearing that the Queen may still hear the wolf howling at her door, generous Holland also sends her with $12,500 for the royal family and the upkeep of courts and palaces.

Expenses Are Enormous.

Alfonso of Spain has $200,000 and $12,000 for family expenses. In addition to these are the salaries paid to presidents of republics. The President of the United States has $150,000 a year; the President of France about $400,000; a similar sum for the President of Switzerland and $700 and the President of Argentina $7,000.

Although Kaiser Wilhelm has altogether, including his annual salary as King of Prussia and his other revenues, about $1,000,000 a year, he has a great deal to do with his money. Unlike the British, who care for all the royal family, the German people expect the Kaiser to pay all those expenses himself, like any other head of a household. Out of his income, therefore, the Kaiser pays to his wife an allowance of $50,000 a year, which must suffice for her own household expenses, pay for her clothes and her charities and gifts. The Kaiser pays the wages of 1,500 lackey the year round. In addition to feeding and clothing them. He also pays the 350 female servants who care for the royal palaces in Berlin and Potsdam.

Much In Private Pensions.

He has also to pay the salaries of the high functionaries of the court, the "chancery and great chamber," salaries about equal to those of army officers of corresponding rank. The Kaiser pays out $10,000 in private pensions and he pays enormous subsidies to the four royal theatres, which, in consequence of the numerous restrictions put upon them, constantly require assistance.

King Alfonso spends money freely for the entertainment of his friends, and takes huge parties with him on his hunting trips, of which he is immensely fond. On one such trip to the Picos di Europa, 30 tents and a grand pavilion splendidly furnished, furnished for the King were carried. The expedition was in the form of a game, and 23 of these animals were killed. The cost of this modest three days' excursion was $5,000.

THE LURE.

"You're wanted at home, father," "Who says so?" "The children." "Did she say anything else?" "She said if you didn't come at once she'd hunt and fetch her." "Come on, boy, let's go home." "Excuse me, father."

Women's Ailments Caused by Neglect

Proper Treatment Will Quickly Bring Back Robust Health and Good Spirits.

Women are on the whole more sickly than men. One reason is that their system is more complicated; another and more important reason is they try off measures of relief too long. At the beginning constipation is the cause of nine-tenths of women's ailments. The blood becomes weakened and polluted—the nerves suffer and a run-down condition takes root.

Because of their mildness of action as a system regulator, no medicine for women can compare with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. The kidneys quickly respond to the remedial action of Dr. Hamilton's Pills and the result is as you would expect—pain in the back and side, shortness of breath, and bad color disappear—the functions of the body then operate naturally, congestion and poisons are prevented and perfect health returns.

Thousands of happy women say Dr. Hamilton's Pills are the greatest and best blood-purifier, the most complexion renewer, the most certain regulating medicine known. Sold by all druggists and storekeepers, 25c per box, five for $1.00 postpaid. The Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Canada.

PET INSURANCE LAW MUST SOON BE PATCHED UP

Premier Asquith Takes Alarm at Irritation Over the Result of Lloyd-George Measure

LONDON'S ANIMAL CLUB IS A DISMAL FAILURE

Jealous Gossips Accuse Queen Mary of Liking the Tango Dance—She Will Frown Down Gambling Propensities.

LONDON, July 19.—May be the most significant and internationally interesting bit of legislation in the past decade in England—the compulsory sickness insurance law—is now beginning to show results, some of them highly unexpected and some of them better than was generally hoped for. It compelled every person earning less than $15 a week to be insured against sickness, exacting from the majority of insured persons a contribution of eight pence a week. In addition to this the employer is compelled to pay six cents and the state contributes four cents, making a weekly payment of 18 cents. In return for this the state undertakes to provide free doctoring and medicine in case of sickness and to pay the insured person $2.50 a week in the case of women during illness. Free sanatorium treatment for consumption is also provided and a maternity benefit of $7.50 is paid to insured mothers and the wives of insured men.

Result is a Muddle.

The immediate effect of the law was a muddle of appalling proportions, such as is perhaps inevitable with any big scheme which is entirely new and for the working of which there is no experience available. This muddle is now being followed by a general relaxation, reflected in the recent parliamentary by-election at Newmarket, where it was fought out almost wholly on this measure, and which resulted in an overwhelming defeat for the government candidate. But we English don't take comfortably to new procedures. It irritates and confuses us to be run round by a general relaxation. The government has already taken alarm and Mr. Asquith, the prime minister, has announced that it will be drastically amended in the light of the experience of its first six months' working.

Club is in a Mess.

There is much disagreement over the state of affairs of the United Traders' Club, which was opened with such a flourish of trumpets and big drums last year. This club was intended primarily for animal lovers, the arrangements for the members' pets being almost as extensive and luxurious as those for their masters and mistresses. The membership grew either suggestion. But Queen Mary is an enthusiast in the dance and nobody who knows her would be at all surprised if she rather liked the swing of "turkey trot" or "tango."

The queen, now resolved to frown down any gambling propensities there may be among the women of the royal entourage.

Foreigner's Praise

Captain Vinton Lockett, of the English polo team, praised the "Piping Rock Club American poloettes."

"American men are the politest chaps on earth," he said. "No wonder your suzerettes aren't militant. No wonder your cars are so overcrowded. 'I don't think a man ever loses any thing by being polite while traveling,' an American said to me the other day. He was setting off on his vacation as he spoke."

"Well," said I, "there's one thing you're going to lose through your politeness," said I.

"What's that?" said I.

"Your sex to a woman," I replied, in the very first trolley-car you enter."

The New Mother

"When you kiss your wee-wee mother's good-bye and vent out into the world to make your fortune, I presume her last fearful lightning kiss for you to be good!"

"No, make good,"—Houston Post.

Counted a Failure.

It was hard to discover which were the most furious among the little knot of disconsolate members as they stood together on the curb, the wealthy one, who had just paid $250 life subscription, or the more modest annual subscriber, perhaps, had just paid his $15 fee $10, as the case may be, all for nothing, as the case may be, all for nothing.

Some of the country members had made arrangements for their dogs to be met at the station, cared for during the night, and then taken on to the various dog shows that are now in full swing in and near London. One lady was in a tremendous state of agitation as to the ultimate fate of her pet because, that she had sent down for a relay to the home run in connection with the club.

Gossip About Queen Mary.

Quite a commotion has been caused by the report set afloat by some of the gossip of the court circles that Queen Mary not merely is willing to "cheat" the laws, but that she was actually seen dancing this "much discussed figure" on a recent "occasional" when the younger members of the royal family were holding high jinks. Of course, there may be no truth in

Two Big League Scouts watch Performance, But Have Not Selected Anyone Yet.

RANKIN'S TWISTERS WERE SOLVED IN 7TH

Millers Took Both Games the Second by Very Close Score Made in Eighth and Ninth.

Regina, Sask., July 18.—Moose Jaw continued its upward march at the expense of the crippled Red Sox yesterday, taking both games of the double header. Two big league scouts watched the post-game, Fraser for Pittsburgh and Eddie Herrer for the St. Louis National.

Stiebs and Rankin had a nice game for seven innings in the afternoon, then Rankin's curves were solved, his support weakened, and he walked in a great deal of his department. The Sox had the score 2 to 0 at the end of third, but the Millers evened up in the fourth and put over the winning run in the eighth, adding another in the seventh. Captain Dyer, who was hit by a foul tip in the afternoon, was unable to work, and the game was handled by two players, Gavin and Butters.

MORAN PUTS BEE ONTO CHURCHILL FOR TRIPLE AND WINS CLOSE GAME

When Paddy Had Reached Third Sawdust Walters Sloughed a Hot One, Moran Scoring—Bugs Try to Mob Taylor But Mayor Threatens to Have All Arrested.

Saskatoon, July 17.—A third bager by Moran in the tenth inning of today's game and a passed ball by Walters was a close and fast game for Edmonton 3 to 2.

Moran had slammed out his triple and tucked in at bat when Walters made a passed ball. Churchill left the mound to catch Walters' throw at the plate. Moran slid home, it being a very close play. After the game 75 or more over-excited fans crowded around Eugene Taylor, and it looked as if he would be mobbed; but the local players, Secretary Truesdale and Mayor Harrison came to his rescue. The mayor threatened the first man who dared touch the umpire with arrest. Taylor was unhurt, and his work throughout the entire game was of a creditable nature. Churchill and Clayton engaged in a pitchers' battle throughout. Clayton was given poor support in the early part of the game, and had the better of the duel, though Churchill pitched good ball.

In the sixth inning, a walk, a sacrifice and a single brought in Edmonton's first run; Saskatchewan tied in the fourth, a double, two errors, a sacrifice and a single using the trick.

In the sixth an error, a single and a pass ball brought in Edmonton's second. A single and two errors bringing in the run.

A triple and a pass ball, with two down, won the game for the visitors in the tenth.

Vancouver Withdraws From Coast Lacrosse

Meeting of British Columbia Lacrosse Association Ends
With Vancouver Out of League—Final Coffin Nail
Put in Pro Game at Coast.

New Westminster, July 18.—At the conclusion of a special meeting of the association held here last evening to discuss the present situation Vancouver tendered its resignation.

Following the adoption of a motion to refer the question as to whether the meeting held in Westminster by the Westminster club in which ten and (which) were suspended for one game, was or was not legal, to a committee composed of three men, one of each club, to be nominated by the Vancouver and Westminster clubs, and those two to select a third, a long discussion ensued ending in the dropping out of the Vancouver club.

The Vancouver club proposed a motion to test the question as to the legality of the former meeting held by the Westminster club. President Kellogg refused, however, to put the motion to the meeting. Then the Victoria delegates suggested referring the question of legality to a committee of three instead of letting it out in that meeting. Vancouver did not accept this suggestion and when it was adopted announced a decision to leave the organization. Vancouver will finish out the season, with the Vancouver athletic club, for the Mann cup.

It IS COMPUTED that the Rent paid by the average Workingman is $25.00 per month. IN THREE YEARS THIS WILL AMOUNT TO $900

Over and Above this amount he will have spent a considerable sum on improving the property—which he has to do at his own expense, if he wanted them to be done at all. During these three years he has been piling up the Dollars for the other fellow. Contrast the position of this man with that of the man who has cut himself free from the burden of Rent—and has made the down payment on a lot and built himself a Home—his whole heart has been in the work. Starting from a small building he has added to it as his means allowed. All the time he has been piling up the Dollars for Himself—getting richer every month and at the end of three

GREAT SURGICAL WORK ON TROOPS

Healthy Organs of Recently Killed Soldiers Are Transferred to Patients.

Norfolk, Va., July 18.—George F. Viets has made public a remarkable letter he received from M. Crenidas, a young Greek, who left Norfolk a year ago with a party of his countrymen to fight against the Turks. Crenidas in his letter says that Dr. Valois Daminis, a physician from Paris, who served in a semi-official capacity with the Greek forces at Janina during the military operations about the city, performed some remarkable surgical experiments.

According to Crenidas, Dr. Daminis brought with him from Paris 90 war-torn patients suffering from diseased kidneys and other organs, and established an invalid camp at Philates, a small town 15 miles from Janina.

Dr. Daminis made several unsuccessful attempts to obtain an audience with the king, but was finally successful when a sum of money was contributed by one of the invalids to equip a battery for the army.

Commanders of the divisions at the front were given orders to send Dr. Daminis all recently killed soldiers that he needed. The experiments then commenced. Upon the receipt of a dead body the doctor and his assistants proceeded to transfer the healthy and still living organs desired from the corpse to the body of one of his patients. Old men on the verge of the grave from Bright's disease had the source of their trouble removed, and the healthy organs of some strong man put in their place. These transfers are said to have included no less than three of the vital bodily organs and numerous smaller operations, in which to were a complete success, while there was only a loss of 10 out of the 90.

NEW FACADE OF BUCKINGHAM IS TO LOOK "AGED"

King George and Queen Mary Dislike Appearance of Brand New Building.

STONE WORK TO SEEM AS IF WEATHER WORN

Little Prince John is Glad That He Is Not a Girl—Prince of Wales is Getting Excellent Reputation.

London, July 14.—The work of re-facading Buckingham palace will begin toward the end of July, as soon as the court leaves for the summer. It is estimated that the work will take not more than six or seven weeks, as the stonework, which is now in hand, will be completed by then and will require only painting and tiling into place.

Both King George and Queen Mary dislike the appearance of a brand new building, and, keeping this in view, those who have the superintendence of the work will see that by a special treatment the stone facades and pillars will have the appearance of a facade slightly weathered.

Inside the palace, too, there will be great changes, and these the Queen herself is superintending or arranging. The rooms now occupied by the Prince of Wales probably will be given over to Prince Albert. They are a charming suite, including a large study. The new rooms in preparation for the Prince of Wales will be of a more comprehensive nature, where he will be able to receive and entertain his friends independently of the rest of the royal household. This new suite will command a view of the Mall and will be furnished and decorated according to the owner's individual taste.

Prince Grant Inquirer.

Prince John is a great inquirer. If he is not answered satisfactorily he replies himself. "Why does Mary have a hat with a feather winding round it?" he demanded the other day as his sister and the King and Queen were about to start out from Buckingham palace. "Girls have to wear queer things; I'm glad I'm a boy."

The little Prince takes an intelligent interest in the affairs and a few days ago, when walking with his nurse in the Green Park, in a fit of enthusiasm shouted at the pitch of his voice, "Voices for the Queen."

The Prince of Wales is getting a fine reputation at Masada. Some time ago he was after hunting, when he slipped and fell on a rocky stone, cutting his knee. The wound bled profusely. He pulled out a handkerchief, bound it round the wound and was off again like a shot.

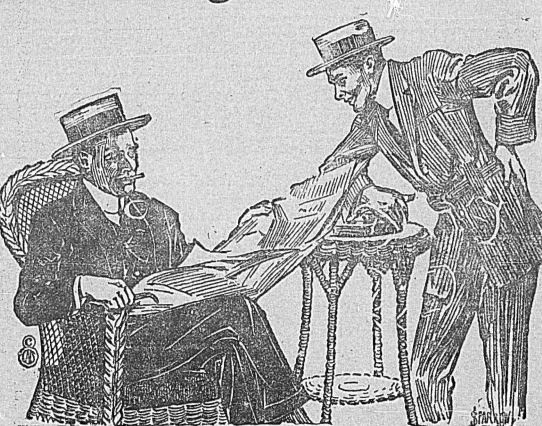

Not Wearing Hats.

It is a subject of remark how many children of prominent society women are appearing nowadays in the park without hats or bonnets of any description, and another thing to be noticed with regard to the children is the simplicity of the materials used for their little garments. Many society mothers dress their children in white embroidery frocks, such as their grandmothers used to have days ago, all the year round, the only difference being the addition of a coat in cold weather, but still with the little heads unprotected in any way.

Mrs. Winston Churchill is largely responsible for this "unfashionable" fashion. She is considered quite an authority upon the clothing and upbringing of children.

Stings to some of his best work. Their inhabitants are the same people, speaking the same language, living a very similar life—but forgotten except by the devoted few, who are mercifully laboring to lighten their load of trouble.

AS TIME FLEW. Chesapeake O'Ray and Della Dumpley sat in a corner of the sofa in the Dungray parlor. Chesapeake had called at eight o'clock and had been sitting there ever since.

"And what may that be, sweetie wavy?" asked Chesapeake. "It was the first remark that had passed the lips of either in forty-five minutes."

"The papa relapse, honey honey bunch," she replied.

"Time flew. Again the stairs creaked."

"And what may that be, poppop wobbles?"

"The milkman with his morning lactical deposit."

"Ah," signed Chesapeake O'Ray. "In three hours I must go." Her father heard his last remark and returned with a club.
